Ministry News

KIAM 630AM (Nenana, AK) is getting ready to welcome back the station manager and his family. Brian and Laurie Blair and their five children have been in the lower 48 since July. Thanks be to God for their much needed fur-lough time.

On a special note, their youngest son will be going to Seattle, Washington at the beginning of November to have heart surgery. Please pray that God will provide for their transition back to Alaska and guide the doctors hands during this delicate surgery.

KAGV 1110AM (Houston/ Big Lake, AK) is preparing to host the VFCM board meetings during the second weekend in November. Also, the VFCM staff will be having a party to celebrate God's provision to his ministry in Alaska this year.

Pray with us that we will have a safe fun time celebrating as well as a productive board meeting that will honor our Lord and Savior.

Baby Thieme

Well, Kristan is still pregnant and we are awaiting the birth of our first child. Thank you to all of you who have sent your prayers for a healthy child, your well wishes, and gifts. We are anxiously awaiting the estimated due date on November 12 and are seeking to follow Proverbs 22:6.

Home Building Update

Much has been accomplished on the house this month. Here are some pictures of the progress.

This month, we have been blessed to be able to install the upstairs wood stove, the banister around the stair case, flooring for the hallway and main room, kitchen island, kitchen wall cabinets, and still get more wood cut and stacked for the winter. Minus window sills, trim, and some other small odds and ends, the upstairs floor is basically finished.
